Hires are to be paid in advance until a trading relationship has been established. Once a trading relationship is developed we will be able to set up a 30-day payment term.

Once all the paper work is submitted, we look forward to building a lasting relationship with the potential of negotiating a long-term deal with trusted clients.

We always ensure our kit is fully tested before leaving the building. We maintain a high level of excellence, providing extra services to meet your needs.
